VOL. XVIII.] MONDAY, JANUARY 5, 1818 [No 5115.

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

From the Balt. Federal Republican.

THE YEAR 1818.

The anniversary of a New-Year, is a season always impressed with melancholy, rather than with joyful recollections. If we look back on the mournful track of existence we have passed over, we see little more than blasted prospects, and we feel little more than the anguish of disappointed hope. We pass in melancholy review the graves of our friends, whose existence seemed almost incorporated with our own. So strong was this sensation even in the mind of Washington, that he has been heard to declare he would not pass his life over again,—and Washington never spoke lightly. If the question was now submitted by Divine Providence to the decision of man, whether he would consent to a renewal of his existence on the same terms on which it has been hitherto extended, subject to the same hopes and to the same fears, the same joys and the same sorrows, we believe very few indeed would be found, who would not conclude in the opinion of Washington. Take Buonaparte as an example! Would he be willing to run his career of splendor again, and to know for a certainty that all his triumphs and all his glories were to terminate in his exile to a barren rock, surrounded by a waste of waters! Undoubtedly not—for the brilliancy of his former fame only serves now to enliven the anguish of his melancholy hours! Shall we take as another example, the successor of Buonaparte to the Royal diadem of France!—Would Louis be willing to have his existence brought back to the day of his birth, to witness the murder of his brother and of his sister, his own exile into foreign lands, on condition that his hoary hairs should be encircled with a crown?—Would he not answer at once in the language of Washington! So joyless to the reflecting mind does life appear in retrospect. On the other hand, futurity is full of horrors. We know to a certainty, that we must witness the loss of our few surviving friends, rendered more dear to us because they are surviving—that we must feel the decrepitude of age, the gradual bereavement of all the senses, decay of memory, even if our lives are protracted, and that we shall stalk about mere shadows of men—the ghastly spectres of our former selves. If this melancholy boon is denied to us, we know that there is but one alternative remaining, the grave.—Such are the joyless and dreary retrospects of human life, even if we are by Divine Providence relieved from those temptations which waylay and beset us at every turn of our existence, and to which if we fall the victims, sorrow and repentance succeed, tears and unavailing anguish; the insolent pity of pretended friends, more difficult to be borne by an ingenuous mind, than the most bitter reproaches of open enemies. Under the mask of friendship, they inflict the more inexorable wounds until the heart, destitute of all consolation, sinks beneath the load of its anguish.—We have not presented this melancholy picture without an object; it is to remind our readers that there is a world beyond the grave, more worthy the aspirings of an immortal soul than the dust, pollution and defilement of the one which we inhabit; it is to remind them that there is a gracious Saviour who stands ready to pardon the repentant, although inexorable man may not; it is to display the cross on mount Calvary, where consolation in abundance may be found, where the sneers of the malignant will never reach, and where every tear that is shed will be recorded by the angel of divine mercy. That our readers, whoever they are, may in the hour of trial find this consolation, is our sincere wish, and to the censorious and malignant they may then exclaim in the language of our dying Redeemer, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do."

Salem, September 16.

HORRIBLE SELF IMMOLATION.

We understand that one of the papers brought in the Bengal, contains an account of 2 females being recently burnt on the funeral pile of their deceased husband, near Calcutta. The British government it is said, interfered to prevent it; but finally a compromise was made, that no force, or binding of the limbs, should be used, but that the women should, after the fire was kindled, be left to their own free will. The consequence was that the elder threw herself into the flames—and afterwards the younger, about seventeen years of age, applauding the conduct of the other, followed her horrible example, and the bodies of husband and wives were consumed together amidst crowds of their fellow beings!

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.

An English paper states that a man by the name of Jenkins, residing in the Island of Trescaw, having some damp gunpowder in his possession, very incautiously put about two pounds of it into an iron pot over the fire in order to dry it. He employed his wife to blow the fire, while he stirred the combustible matter with an iron poker! The pot becoming heated, a dreadful explosion took place attended with lamentable results. The man was struck blind—his thumb and hand were lacerated in a shocking manner; and his clothes and several parts of his body, were much hurt and injured. His wife likewise was severely scorched. But what is most remarkable is, that not a vestige of the pot has been found since.

At the late celebration of commencement at Havard College, an old gentleman from the vicinity of Boston sat upon the stage to witness the performance, who had taken his degree in the same university, just 71 years before.

Self-love magnifies or diminishes the good qualities of our friends, in proportion to the satisfaction we take in them; and we judge of their merits by the terms they keep with us.

ALEXANDRIA:
SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday, January 3, 1818.

I do not know whether I am justified in troubling you with a letter for the conveyance of such an inconsiderable patch of information as I have to communicate. After the petitions and business merely private or extremely uninteresting was yesterday finished, the house went into a committee of the whole on a bill prescribing the effects of judicial proceedings in the several states, which consumed the whole residue of the day, and ended in rising and reporting progress.

A bill was reported by Mr. Herbert to provide for building a court house, jail, and public offices in Alexandria, which was read twice and committed.

And a resolution to place on the pension list the officers of the army wounded in battle during the late war, was presented by Mr. Comstock, and passed.

An engrossed bill to indemnify colonel Anderson against two judgments obtained against him for the value of an orchard he was obliged to cut down in a military operation in the late war, after some opposition, more technical than substantial, was passed.

SACRILEGE.

A fellow by the name of Smith was sent to Bridewell last Saturday, on the charge of stealing the plate from a coffin, which was placed in a vault in one of the church yards in this city. We understand Smith is a grave digger by occupation. [N. Y. Eve. Post.

At a Court of Oyer and Terminer, held at Utica last Monday, John Harris, Jas. O'Brien, David Linus, John Denny (an Indian youth) and Roswell T. Pratt, were tried for the crime of arson and murder, and found guilty of both. Judge Platt, who presided, pronounced the sentences of the case, which was, that each of them be hanged on the second Friday of February next. [ibid.

From the N. Y. Com. Advertiser, Dec. 29.

FROM GIBRALTAR.

By the arrival this morning of the brig Eliza Ann, captain Johnson, from Gibraltar, we learn that the American squadron, consisting of one 74, 2 frigates, and 2 sloops of war, under commodore Chauncey, were still at Gibraltar on the 23d November. Capt. Johnson was informed by the health officer that all vessels were quarantined 10 days, in consequence of the Algerine squadron being out. On the 19th of November captain Johnson was informed by a gentleman at Gibraltar, that the Russians were about taking possession of the island of Minorca, for a naval depot, in lieu of which the Russians were to supply the Spaniards with 12 sail of the line to go against the Patriots.

By this arrival we have been favored with a Gibraltar price current of the 21st of November, from which we quote the following:

Price Current at Gibraltar, Nov. 21.

Bread, ship, per cwt. $7 50 a 8; cotton, Carolina, short, 32 last sales; corn, Indian, fanega. 3 25, small parcels sold as quoted—2 fanega. of corn is equal to 4 1-8 American bushels; fish, cod, American, 4, arrivals and sales in small parcels; flour, superfine, per bbl. 13, but in little demand, sells at this in small parcels; provisions, pork, 18; beef 18, wanted in small parcels; rice, cwt. 7 75, actual sales, wanted; staves, w. o. pipe, per 1200, $65, plenty and few sales.

St. Louis, Nov. 15.

INDIAN FIGHT.

Information of a Shawanee chief.—The Cherokees and their allies, with the loss of 1 man killed and a few wounded, have killed 83 and taken upwards of 100 of the confederacy, formerly mentioned, with much plunder, and have destroyed the crops and burnt the town of the Osages of Arkansas. It is also said that a number of scalps taken from the whites were found with the baggage of the Osages.

From the Savannah Museum, Dec. 23.

From our attentive correspondent at St. Mary's we have received two printed sheets from Fernandina, one dated the 9th, and the other the 12th December.—The one of the 9th contains the "Report of the committee appointed to frame the plan of a provisional government for the republic of Floridas." The government is to be democratic republican, divided into three equally independent departments—executive, legislative and judicial; the military to be subordinate to the civil authority; the executive authority to be vested in a chief magistrate;—the legislative in a general assembly; the judicial to be vested in a supreme court of justice, inferior courts and justices of the peace. The liberty of the press is guaranteed, and the liberty of conscience acknowledged as one of the national rights of the people of the Floridas.

The sheet of the 12th contains "the report of the committee appointed by the honorable assembly of Fernandina, to obtain information relative to the transactions between that republic and John H. Elton, late commander of the U. States' brig Saranac." This committee imagine that the attempt of captain Elton to board the prize schooner Tantativa on the 8th of November, in (as they state) "the very waters of Amelia," was an act unauthorised and unjustifiable, and "Resolve, That these documents, with a statement of the affair, be officially transmitted by the earliest opportunity to the President of the United States, exposing the unjust and arbitrary conduct of captain Elton, well assured that complete justice will be done."

The correspondence which took place between Aury and captain Elton, on the subject, we insert below.

Correspondence between com. Aury and captain Elton.

U. S brig Saranac, Cumberland Island, November 9, 1817.

SIR,—Last evening a schooner passed into Amelia or Fernandina that had been attempted to be boarded by a boat from the Saranac. She fired at the boat:—whatever character she assumes, she must answer for the insult according to the laws of the United States. I cannot believe that yourself or the people of Fernandina can give the least sanction to such proceedings: under that belief I have sent a boat to bring her over to American waters, provided no objection was started. If she is refused or protected, I shall consider that Fernandina has hoisted the flag of defiance and act accordingly.

I have the honor to be, &c.
(Signed) J. H. ELTON.
Gen. Aury.

Head-quarters, Fernandina, Nov. 9, and 1st of the Independence.

SIR,—I have received your official letter of this day. As its contents relate to matters of so much consideration, I have ordered that the necessary investigation of the prize master be made. I may, however, inform you that should he be found culpable he should be punished according to the laws of nations: as the government has no other views than to maintain good understanding and harmony with yourself or any other officer of the United States, it will not remain behind hand in giving every satisfaction that is just.

I have the honor, &c.
(Signed) AURY.
John H. Elton, esq.

U. S. brig Saranac, Cumberland Island, November 10, 1817.

SIR,—Your letter of yesterday was duly received. I had hoped that the rising republic of Amelia would not undertake to harbor vessels, that might commit themselves, particularly where the laws of the United States were concerned, but supposed it would comport with the honor and interest of the place to turn any such vessel from their waters. You say that the conduct of the prize master shall be examined into and punished if found guilty. I had mentioned the insult offered, and wished the offence to be tried in the United States. The verbal message returned by the officer of the Saranac is not such as I expected. I did not request you to deliver the vessel to me: it was a belief that you would, on hearing the offence, refuse her a harbor—other responsibility I would take on myself. You have heard my individual opinion as regarded the patriot cause—with the same candor I again inform you, that assume whatever character that vessel may, she must be accountable.

I likewise inform you that if ever I fall in with the sloop Astrea, without the jurisdictional limits of the Floridas, she will be seized for the breach of the revenue laws.

I have the honor to be, &c.
Signed, JNO. H. ELTON.
Gen. AURY.

Head Quarters, Fernandina, Nov. 18.

SIR—Your preventing vessels from going out and coming into this port, in consequence of your boat having fruitlessly attempted to board the schr. Tantativa, prize to the private armed schr. of the republic of Mexico, the Brutus, within our waters and not more than 150 feet from the beach of this island, has induced me, in order to avoid all difficulties for the present, to consent to give her up to you, in hopes that the government of the United States will do us that justice which becomes a free and great people.

I have the honor to be, &c.
AURY.

From the Norfolk Beacon, Dec. 29.

MELANCHOLY SHIPWRECK.

From a lad of about 17 years of age, calling himself WILLIAM JONES, who acted as cook on board the schooner, (and who being providentially rescued from a watery grave, we found yesterday wandering through our streets, enquiring for employment) we have learned the following particulars of the loss of the schooner Maria, Captain James, sailing from the city of New-York, and owned at Stockett's on Long Island, but by whom our informant knows not.—He represents her as a staunch built new vessel, of nearly 100 tons, navigated by 6 hands, viz. the mate called George, (whether his surname or christian name he knows not) two white seamen, one named Jack Lewis, the other Jack ——, a negro called Jack also, and himself, who alone survived, to tell the story of their woes.

The Maria sailed from New York about two months since in ballast, bound to Barbados; arrived there after a pleasant passage of eight days; took in a cargo of oranges, lemons and raisins, and sailed thence in complete order about 1st Dec. for Edenton, N. C. About the 17th inst. (according to the best computation of our informant, who is a very illiterate youth) being about 100 miles from Cape Hatteras, a severe gale commenced (from due east he thinks) and encreased in a few hours to a perfect hurricane, which continued five days without any intermission. On the first day the Maria sustained little other damage than that of spliting her foresail and jib. On the second day the remaining sails were torn to tatters, and, with the yard, blown from the mast, and the rigging generally much damaged.—On the third day, about an hour after sun-rise, the gale still unabated in its fury, and the sea making continual breaches over her, discovered Shell Castle light, about 7 miles distant. Having subsisted the two previous days on raw provisions from being unable to make a fire, our informant was endeavoring to kindle one for the purpose of cooking something, when all hands were called to consult on the best means of preserving themselves from impending destruction, the vessel being then only half a mile from Ocracock bar, with no possibility of keeping clear of it but by letting go her anchor, which, from the tremendous sea then running, she would inevitably have sunk. It was determined finally to run her ashore on the shoal, and endeavor to save their lives by swimming, both of her boats having been washed from the deck in the early part of the day. About 11 o'clock A. M. she struck in 4 feet water, and immediately split open forward, when her foremast went over—and every one being told to shift for himself, the captain, with the two white and the black seaman, jumped overboard, leaving the mate and our informant on the wreck, the former doubting his ability to swim so far, and the latter being unable to swim at all.—Shocking however to relate, they had scarcely swam 20 rods from the schooner when a heavy sea struck and overwhelmed them all, never to rise again.

About five minutes after witnessing this horrid fate of their companions, the vessel was completely sundered, and the main-mast went over, carrying with it the mate and our informant, who appalled with the conviction that they had not long to survive, yet trusting to the mercy of a kind Providence, had tied some clothing in the rigging, and clinging to the mast, had resolved to commit their fortunes to the waves, and to trust to their clothing them to some port of safety. Having reached the shore upon the mast within about a quarter of a mile, the mate put off from it to swim to the beach, which he reached about 12 o'clock. Our informant being unable to swim, clung to the mast, and about 1 o'clock in the morning (having been about 14 hours at the mercy of the winds and waves) was drifted ashore on Ocracock beach, almost in a state of starvation, and so benumbed with cold as to be scarcely able to articulate a word.

In a short time he reached a house a small distance from the beach, (the residence of some pilots) where he was kindly received, & found the late companion of his sufferings sinking under the effects of the cold and fatigue which he had endured. The ensuing evening, at 4 o'clock, the mate expired, and was buried on the beach by the pilots, leaving no other historian of their disasters than the youth who furnishes us with this statement. He was carried to Edenton in a boat, and thence came on foot to this place in pursuit of employment. We will give notice of the direction in which he goes from this place, that any persons who may be concerned in the loss of the schooner, may know where to apply for further particulars of this shocking catastrophe.

Our informant states, that he is a native of Boston, where his mother (his only surviving relative at that time) died about a year ago.

To the Flour and Rice Millers

OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the United States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22, 1813, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due, and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, esq. Buckland, Prince William county, or to capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

NOTE.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and treble damages to the defendants. JOHN LOVE.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Prince William county, on the night of the 24th inst. a BRIGHT MULATTO GIRL, nearly white, about 15 or 16 years of age. She is of a very low stature, and very fat; her eyes small and of a hazle color; her hair brown and long; her skin, from great attention, would pass for that of a white person, particularly her hands, which she has preserved from roughness with great care. She carried away many valuable articles, besides her own clothing, (which was costly) such as fine linen shifts, marked with her mistress' name, a costly ring of pearl, several pair of new stockings, muslin habits, &c. Among her own wardrobe was a scarlet stuff dress, which she frequently appeared in when she visited in the neighbourhood, with a new straw bonnet, dressed with pink satin ribband, and a tortoise shell comb in her hair.

I will give the above reward of $100 for apprehending this girl, and securing her in any gaol so that I get her again.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coarse cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier or Loudoun counties; if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home. Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of wood, and (judging from the condition of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it,) it is highly susceptible of improvement.—It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid off into four or five very compact farms The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into his neighbourhood, he will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays, being about 3 per cent. on its estimated value.

Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr. M'Pherson—the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement, from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

Public Sale.

ON the 10th January next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public auction, on the premises, a certain tract or parcel of LAND, situate in the county of Loudoun, near the Gum Spring, and at the intersection of the Little River Turnpike and Centreville Road, near the 26 mile stone, containing 752 acres. Those lands are two third parts of the lands formerly belonging to Robt. Lyle, sen. deceased, in those counties, and divided by commissioners appointed under the authority of court.

It is presumed and wished that all who are inclined to become purchasers, will examine the lands; and, therefore, it becomes unnecessary to be more particular. They will be divided into such portions as may be desired; and the terms of payment will be one third part in hand, and the remainder by equal instalments in one and two years, secured by bond, and bearing interest from the day of sale, with approved security.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
